REQUESTING ASSISTANCE

HOW WE HELP
ANA’s SEOLE Program provides financial assistance for families of stillborn children. Through this program ANA is able to assist with expenses related to: * Autopsy * Funeral/burial * Cremation * Cemetery Plot * Headstone/Monument

Additionally, ANA’s GRASP Program provides funding for bereaved families in need who are seeking the support of a counselor to address grief related to baby’s stillbirth.

HOW IT WORKS

- After receiving a Request for Assistance (RFA) form, ANA volunteers confirm information and eligibility.
  - ANA volunteers follow up with the service providers and families/requestors to confirm current account balances and explain ANA’s mission and programs.
  - If baby was stillborn, volunteers determine ANA’S contribution based on pre-established protocol.
  - ANA cannot reimburse families for expenses already paid.

- If the RFA is complete and meets eligibility requirements, volunteers continue to process the application and coordinate dispersement of funds.

- ANA’s contribution is always the final payment on the account, and families must coordinate their payments with the service provider (i.e. funeral home).

- When the account balance matches the amount ANA has pledged, the provider must submit an invoice to ANA showing payments and an updated balance. We will then submit final payment directly to the service provider.

- ANA is staffed entirely by volunteers and we do our best to process requests in a timely manner. However, sometimes it takes longer than we anticipate. We appreciate your patience as we do our best to help you.
